

100 Verbs with Natural V3 (Present Perfect) Sentences

be (V3: been): She has been very busy this week.

have (V3: had): I have had enough time to finish it.

do (V3: done): They have done their homework already.

say (V3: said): He has said everything clearly.

go (V3: gone): She has gone to the office.

get (V3: got): I have got your message.

make (V3: made): We have made a big mistake.

know (V3: known): I have known her for years.

think (V3: thought): She has thought about the problem carefully.

take (V3: taken): They have taken the wrong train.

see (V3: seen): I have seen that movie before.

come (V3: come): He has come back home.

want (V3: wanted): She has wanted this job for a long time.

look (V3: looked): I have looked everywhere for my keys.

use (V3: used): We have used this method before.

find (V3: found): They have found a solution.

give (V3: given): She has given me useful advice.

tell (V3: told): He has told me the truth.

work (V3: worked): I have worked here since 2020.

call (V3: called): She has called you twice.

try (V3: tried): We have tried everything.

ask (V3: asked): He has asked an important question.

need (V3: needed): I have needed your help many times.

feel (V3: felt): She has felt better recently.

become (V3: become): He has become more confident.

leave (V3: left): They have left the building.

put (V3: put): I have put the book on the table.

mean (V3: meant): This has meant a lot to me.

keep (V3: kept): She has kept the secret.

let (V3: let): He has let them enter.

begin (V3: begun): The meeting has begun.

seem (V3: seemed): It has seemed impossible.

help (V3: helped): They have helped many people.

talk (V3: talked): We have talked about this issue.

turn (V3: turned): She has turned off the lights.

start (V3: started): I have started a new project.

show (V3: shown): He has shown great progress.

hear (V3: heard): I have heard that news.

play (V3: played): They have played very well.

run (V3: run): He has run five kilometers today.

move (V3: moved): We have moved to a new house.

live (V3: lived): I have lived here for years.

believe (V3: believed): She has believed in herself.

bring (V3: brought): He has brought his laptop.

happen (V3: happened): Something strange has happened.

write (V3: written): I have written three emails.

provide (V3: provided): They have provided enough support.

sit (V3: sat): She has sat there all day.

stand (V3: stood): He has stood by his decision.

lose (V3: lost): I have lost my wallet.

pay (V3: paid): We have paid the bill.

meet (V3: met): I have met him before.

include (V3: included): The price has included tax.

continue (V3: continued): They have continued the project.

set (V3: set): He has set a new goal.

learn (V3: learned): I have learned a lot.

change (V3: changed): Things have changed recently.

lead (V3: led): She has led the team successfully.

understand (V3: understood): I have understood the lesson.

watch (V3: watched): We have watched that series.

follow (V3: followed): He has followed the instructions.

stop (V3: stopped): She has stopped working.

create (V3: created): They have created something new.

speak (V3: spoken): I have spoken to him.

read (V3: read): She has read the book.

allow (V3: allowed): They have allowed us to enter.

add (V3: added): I have added more details.

spend (V3: spent): We have spent too much money.

grow (V3: grown): The company has grown fast.

open (V3: opened): She has opened the window.

walk (V3: walked): I have walked for hours.

win (V3: won): They have won the match.

offer (V3: offered): He has offered his help.

remember (V3: remembered): I have remembered your name.

love (V3: loved): She has loved this place.

consider (V3: considered): They have considered the options.

appear (V3: appeared): He has appeared suddenly.

buy (V3: bought): I have bought a new phone.

wait (V3: waited): She has waited for hours.

serve (V3: served): They have served dinner.

die (V3: died): The plant has died.

send (V3: sent): I have sent the email.

expect (V3: expected): We have expected better results.

build (V3: built): They have built a new house.

stay (V3: stayed): I have stayed at home.

fall (V3: fallen): The leaves have fallen.

cut (V3: cut): He has cut the paper.

reach (V3: reached): We have reached our goal.

kill (V3: killed): The noise has killed the mood.

remain (V3: remained): She has remained calm.

suggest (V3: suggested): He has suggested a plan.

raise (V3: raised): They have raised the price.

pass (V3: passed): I have passed the exam.

sell (V3: sold): They have sold their car.

require (V3: required): This has required effort.

report (V3: reported): They have reported the issue.

decide (V3: decided): I have decided to stay.

pull (V3: pulled): He has pulled the door.

return (V3: returned): She has returned home.

explain (V3: explained): I have explained everything.

hope (V3: hoped): We have hoped for success.